QUINCY

On North Quincy, on North Quincy
Fight right through that line
Don't despair, show the colors you wear and keep on marching, keep on marching.
On North Quincy, on North Quincy
as those RAIDERS go onward and FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT!
for North Quincy High.

Rah for North Quincy
we are here to win forward and never give in RAH! RAH! RAH!
On toward the goal, boys
never say die
Onward and FIGHT! FIGHT! FIGHT!
For North Quincy High.

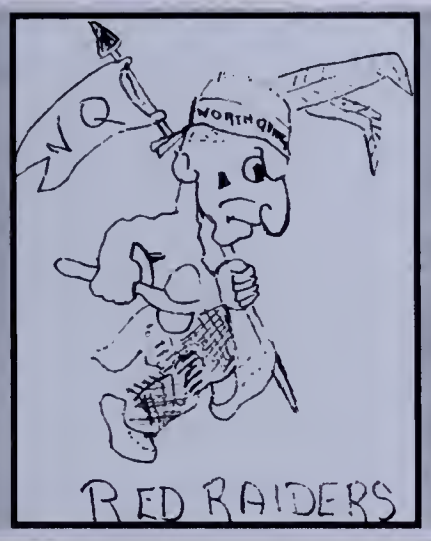
DR. ALLEN YACUBIAN
"YAKOO"

A nervous kid waits in Dr. Yacubian's office thinking of what is about to happen.
Dr. Yacubian enters the room. "How are you doing?" he excitedly asks.
"Did your Father go to North?"
"Yes, so did my Mother," the boy replies. "And I go to North too."
"Great! I have something for you when we are done here," Dr. Yakoo says with a smile. "Your teeth look great; you must spend a lot of time on them," he adds before handing his patient the latest Yakoo shirt and hat as he gets up to leave.
This scene has occurred every day,every year since 1958.
For the last fifty years, Dr Yacubian has been "Yakoo", the symbol of scholastic and academic excellence at North Quincy High School. We have benefited from the support of Dr. Yacubian by the countless banners in the gym, hats, shirts and anything Yakoo. These items are seen all over the world.
There is nobody prouder to be an NQHS alumnus than Dr. Yacubian. He brings out the NQHS pride in everyone he has contact with.
We can never thank Dr Yacubian enough for his support, and for his example of "NORTH PRIDE".

A Closer Look At The The"Yakoo"

The Artist, Peter Fredericksen

Dr. Allan Yacubian, Inspiration for the Yakoo



Original Sketch done by Fredericksen

The Yakoo today

The story of the Yakoo begins in 1957 when North Quincy High was searching for a new symbol to represent their school. The student body strongly desired a unique symbol to characterize the ideals promoted at North. One day, a student named Pete Fredericksen had an idea; he believed that NQHS needed a symbol which represented the determination and perseverance of its students and faculty. He asked his friend, Al Yacubian, to pose for him while he drew a sketch. Pete drew a raider carrying a stone hammer to represent the hard work that North Quincy High School had put forth in order to overcome their small size as a new establishment. Pete also drew the Yakoo in motion in order to reflect the school's forward movement and growth. The raider was soon named Yakoo after the model and inspiration, Al Yacubian.

Principal
Earl Metzler

Assistant Principal
Pamela Mateu

On behalf of the entire staff at North Quincy High School I want to take this opportunity to thank you for being such a special class. You have demonstrated excellence in the classroom, on the athletic fields, and in all aspects of the arts. You are a class that has embraced diversity, committed to community service, and have left your mark on North Quincy High School. Tradition, pride, and excellence are alive and well because of the class of 2008!

I hope you will always remember that life is not about having what you want, but wanting what you have. Success can be considered getting what you want, but happiness is wanting what you get! The class of 2008 deserves the best, and it is our hope that each and every one of you will settle for nothing less!

Congratulations and best wishes!
Respectfully,
Earl F. Metzler, Principal

Mr. Maldonado

How can we say goodbye to Kevin Maldonado?

His inspiration was immeasurable, and his friendship was deeply appreciated. He was a mentor to so many and a teacher to us all. He would not want us to grieve, but to remember the lessons he has shared with us through the years:

Be honest and respect will follow. Laugh everyday and do not let the trivial things get to you. Always listen before answering. And most importantly, do not forget to love.

Kevin, we love you. Through your family at North Quincy High School, your memory will remain alive.

"He was a very nice guy with good jokes and a lively personality."

Ultimately, the actors celebrate their craft by working together to create polished theatrical pieces.

Renaissance Voice

Renaissance Vocal Music is a credit course for juniors and seniors. A limited number of students are accepted only through audition. Students study vocal technique, performance skills, music theory, music history and perform solo and choral music during the year.

Robotics

The Quincy Public Schools Team HYPER #69 is proud to be working with The Gillette Company once again as we begin our 10th year in the FIRST Robotics Competition. HYPER, which stands for Helping Youth Pursue Engineering and Robotics, is comprised of students from North Quincy High and Quincy High / Center for Technical Education, teachers, parents, and Gillette engineers, machinists and executives. Team members may contribute to any part of the project whether it is robot design, field construction and maintenance, drivers, human players, pit crew, web page design, team animation, or the team Chairman's award.

The partnership that has developed between Quincy Public Schools and Gillette has provided an exchange of resources and talent that has highlighted needs, built cooperation and exposed our students to new career choices. The FIRST experience has shown our students that Science, Math and Technology can be fun and exciting. Students have discovered the important connection between classroom lessons and real world applications.

Rubiks Cube Club

Rubiks Cube Club is a recent club created by Bao Nhat Nguyen and Kevin Szeto. The members solve Rubiks Cubes and also help individuals practice and solve them. This club helps to increase interest in this forgotten activity that stimulates the mind.

Select Choir

North Quincy High School Select Choir includes 24 students selected through auditions from the NQHS Concert Choir. The group rehearses in the evening and performs at concerts, community events, and school system ceremonies. Challenging music is performed, including madrigals, spirituals and jazz.

Student Council

The Student Council is the Student Government of North Quincy High. It includes the elections for all class officers of all grades. The Student Council meets on a daily basis as a homeroom and conducts formal monthly meetings in which the issues of concern to students and general school-wide issues are discussed. The student council members act as liaisons between the student body and the administration. Certain members of the Student Council are chosen to represent the school in the Massachusetts Regional Advisory Council, and on the Quincy School Committee. Additionally, the Student Council conducts the annual North Quincy High School / Red Cross Blood Drive.

Thomas Jefferson Forum

The Thomas Jefferson Forum is an extracurricular organization that promotes volunteerism in the community. The Thomas Jefferson Forum was started in the 1980's as part of a statewide effort to promote community service in public high schools. The Forum at North Quincy High School was one of the five original models for this program. The club has been in continuous action since its conception. The goals and objectives of the Thomas Jefferson Forum are to provide volunteering opportunities to high school students and to acknowledge those who contribute to their community. The Thomas Jefferson Forum holds meetings generally every other week and executive board meetings once a week. General meetings are held whenever there is a guest from a volunteer association to speak or if a group project is coming up. There are many benefits in being a member of the Thomas Jefferson Forum. Members receive a one point credit each semester if they complete 20 hours. In joining, members also realize the benefits of becoming a volunteer and the rewards gained when giving back to the community.

Yearbook Club

The Yearbook Club is responsible for bringing this beautiful book to you! The staff first chooses a theme and then designs a cover with a yearbook artist. In order to create the yearbook pages, the staff designs different layouts according to each section of the yearbook. Photographs and descriptions are then inserted into each layout. Next, the pages are edited and sent to the plant to be processed. Students learn about desktop publishing, digital photography, layout design, and the importance of deadlines.
